Albert was born October 16, 1931, in Vardaman, MS. Albert was a veteran of the United States Army and was a proud patriot. He is remembered for his kind and gentle heart. Albert was married to the love of his life, Janie, for 67 years. They were the true definition of partners in the life they shared together. Albert enjoyed many hobbies in life. He was a master gardener and even grew fruit trees for some time. He also enjoyed playing Dominoes and Rook, although he and his wife could never play together due to their competitiveness. After retirement, Albert also enjoyed traveling. He was a very active member of his beloved church, Goodman Oaks Church of Christ, and made an impact on his friends and congregation there.

Albert's friends and family remember him as being a brawny, gentle giant. He was known for his strong grip, and his handshake could almost break a hand! However, Albert had the kindest heart and never had a harsh word to say about anyone. He never met a stranger and had an infectious laugh that would make you lose your breath. Albert's love for his wife, family, friends, and church will be missed by all who loved him.

Albert is survived by his wife, Janie Florence Hayes of Southaven, MS; his daughters, Clarene Webster of Southaven and Emily Neal (Bennie) of Olive Branch, MS; his grandsons, Cody Webster of Ecu, MS, Heath Webster (Haeleigh) of Ecu and Corey Neal (Holly) of Olive Branch; his granddaughter, Christen Colvett (Jeremy) of Olive Branch; and his great-grandson, Riley Colvett of Olive Branch.

Albert was preceded in death by his father, Michael Jeremiah Hayes; his mother, Clara Mae Hayes; his brothers, Lawrence Hayes, Jerry Hayes, Robert Hayes, Buford Hayes, Max Hayes, and Edward Hayes; and his sisters, Lorene McGregor, Evelyn Spratlin, and Betty Blevins.
