Allan "Perk" Parker, 69, passed away on Tuesday, October 29, 2024,

The family will celebrate his life with a memorial service at a later date.

Allan Bernard Parker, best known by his friends and loved ones as Perk, was born in Oxford on June 05, 1955, the only child of the late Edward Bernard Parker and Virginia Oswald Parker.

In his younger years, he actively participated in various sports, including basketball, football, and baseball. He took the initiative to coach a little league baseball team, fostering a love for the game in young players.

He inherited Parker Roofing from his father, a testament to the family's legacy of hard work and commitment to quality service. Later, he passed the business on to his son. Perk also owned a café on South Lamar, which became known for its inviting atmosphere and home-cooked meals, creating a welcoming environment for the community. His interests extended to shooting and attending gun shows, reflecting his diverse hobbies.

A deep appreciation for music of all genres enriched his life, and Perk found tranquility in sitting on the porch of his cherished home on Cedar Hill. This place served as a personal retreat for him and his beloved wife, Susie.

The loved ones he leaves behind include his wife, Susie Capell Parker of Oxford; one son, Cody Parker, and his wife, Sammi Smith Parker of Oxford; one daughter, Mandy Parker of Oxford; and three grandchildren: Alexis Hankins of Oxford, Hudson Shoffner of Oxford, and Mary Macallan Parker of Oxford.

Perk was preceded in death by his first wife, Deborah Collins Parker, and his father and mother, Edward Bernard Parker and Virginia Oswalt Parker.

In place of traditional flowers, the family has requested that donations be given to God's House of Hope (<https://www.ghohkilmichael.com/donate>).

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford staff is honored to serve the family during this challenging season of life. Online condolences may be left on his Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com

“ You are and always be the love of my life. No words can encompass the pain I have in my heart right now. I cling to the knowledge that I will see you soon and there will be no more suffering, tears, or any more death. Christ has you in His loving arms where you belong.
