Ann was born in Memphis, TN, to Carney and Lois Jones on November 9, 1943.

She grew to be a compassionate, spiritual woman of Christ, who loved her church and was a true living testimony of Jesus' principles. Mrs. Kelley was dedicated to lovingly rearing her own children, while also making a Christian home for needy children, as an Agape Organization Foster Parent. Through her tender love and care, Margaret made better the lives and circumstances of numerous children of all ages.

Most days, Ann would be found caring for others, including her church family.

She was always selfless and concerned about the welfare and happiness of others. Ann was a longtime and faithful member of Southaven Church of Christ. Her hope, charity, and Christian spirit will be missed by the incredible amount of people she touched.

Mrs. Kelley is preceded in death by her loving husband, of 36 years, Charles Frazier; her loving husband, of 4 years, Allan Dale Kelley; her parents, Carney and Lois Jones; her three brothers, Robert Jones, William Jones, and Elmer Jones; her stepson Allan Dale Kelley, Jr. and her three granddaughters McKala, Gabrielle, and Elizabeth.

Mrs. Kelley leaves behind her daughter, Kathy (Matt) Presley of Mobile, Al; her two sons, Glenn (Dena) Frazier of Coldwater, MS and Russell A. Frazier of Southaven; her two stepsons, Joey Kelley and Tommy (Missy) Kelley; her two stepdaughters, Ginna (Carl) Honeycutt and Terri (Mike) Sykes; her best friend, Peggy Schull, her 22 grandchildren; and 12 great grandchildren.
