Annie Roberson, 84, passed away on Tuesday, July 20, 2021, in Oxford, MS. A Memorial Service will be Thursday, July 22, 2021, at 5:00 p.m., at Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford. Tim Sanders will officiate. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Annie was born to the late Tom Watson and Rener Alice Rowland. She worked as a Nurse's Assistant.

Annie was described by her family as being outgoing, caring, and very independent. She loved her family and wanted nothing but the best for them. She held a love for growing flowers, which were beautiful, cooking, canning and gardening, and coloring in her coloring books. Her tomato gravy and biscuits were to absolutely die for, everyone loved them. She also enjoyed listening to and keeping up with the lives of Tim McGraw and Faith Hill. It was so important to her, that in fact, Tim and Faith both were included in the family pictures. She made sure she knew what was going in their lives. Annie also loved the movie Dirty Dancing and the song What's Love Got to Do with It!

She is survived by her daughters, Alice Ann (Jerry) Jenkins, of Batesville, MS, Martha (Marion) Bowles, of Oxford, and Loretta Lynn (Jesse Grose) Bynum, of Oxford; two siblings, Daniel Lee (Bessie Mae) Rowland, of Batesville, and Claudia Nelia Arcre, of Water Valley, MS; and a host of blood and non-blood grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Annie was preceded in death by her parents, Tom Watson and Rener Alice Rowland; one child, Tommy Lee Moore; and five siblings, Maudie Celia Rowland, James Edward Rowland, Allan Clayton Rowland, Junior Rowland, and Mattie Mae Cranford.
