Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

Miss Ashley Nicole Ursery, 22, passed away, Saturday, January 6, 2018, in Memphis, TN. Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch is in charge of arrangements.

Ashley's favorite past time was riding horses. She loved horse riding more than anything in the world. She started riding horses at a very young age and never outgrew her passion for them. She did not only love horses, but she had a passion for all animals, especially her pets, Macy and Bruno. She would always brag about them, as many would say, they were her babies. She was also a very creative person. Anything that had to do with arts and crafts she was all on it. She was excited each time she had the chance to paint and draw. Whenever Ashley had free time to herself, she had paint and paper by her side. Ashley was always so full of life; she was so uplifting when someone was feeling down. Ashley was the type of person that could always make you laugh at any given moment. She always seemed to have a joke up her sleeve. When Ashley was not busy, she was out with some of her closest friends enjoying life and having a good time. Most of all, Ashley cherished any moments she got to spend with her family and friends. Ashley will truly be missed by those closest to her.

Ashley leaves behind her loving mother, Audrey R. Green of Weir, MS; father, Martin A. Ursery of Olive Branch; two sisters, Amanda L. (Ray) McKnight and Rhonda (Johnathan) Holden both of Millington, TN; two brothers, James R. Rovenstine of Chatom, AL, and Aaron T. Ursery of Clinton, MS; and grandmother, Betty Jean (Larry) Burks of Little Rock, AR.

Ashley was preceded in death by her grandparents Vardeman and Velma Ursery, and Jimmy N. Andrews.

Online condolences may be left on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.

“ You've been on my mind a lot these past couple of days sweet girl. And all I remember is youth group at church and how nice, funny and just amazing you were. We lost touch, growing older and living life will do that but whoever got to meet you, even for a second or even see your smile, they were the lucky ones. Your gone way too soon and it's just crazy how that happens but your in a better place now and now every body that knew you has a guardian angel looking after them. RIP sweet girl

“ Ashley, Fly high with the angels sweet girl. I know you have found a gorgeous horse to ride up there in the endless clouds and sunlight. Keep a watchful eye on momma and give her a sign that you are okay. Things in her world will never be the same, but please help her and show her how to go on in the coming days. Thank you for showing so much kindness to the girls. Rest asy

“ I knew Ashley very little and briefly, but I was charmed by her sweet personality and beautiful face. Once or twice she 'neglected' to collect my cover charge. I know no words of mine could ease your pain over the loss of one so young, but I hope this lets you know she touched more lives than her private circle. God bless you in your hours of grief.
