

Aubrey Ella Gray

April 27, 2017 - April 16, 2022

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Aubrey Ella Gray, 4, passed away on Saturday, April 16, 2022. All services will be held privately. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Aubrey was remembered for being the happiest little girl, with the most contagious smile. She was known to be a very brave and strong child that endured any obstacle life handed her with. Her family drew their strength and gratefulness through her ability to keep fighting for the things that are taken for granted by the rest of us. Aubrey leaves us so shortly, but will be remembered for a lifetime. She will be missed by those who loved and cherished her, deeply.

Please leave online condolences on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.

“ I am so sorry for your loss, these special children are given to us for a short time. During that time they teach us what true love is. My the Good Lord wrap his loving arms round each of you and give you peace.

ME

“ Our precious great granddaughter always brought such great joy to us whenever we would see her. Her presence was a gift from our Great God. We are so grateful to God for putting her in our lives for almost 5 years. The lesson she taught us was “Be joyful always, for the joy of the Lord is our strength. (Nehemiah 8:10)
Aubrey, we will never forget you, we pray we can have a heart filled with love and joy and peace like you had, the heart that God gave you to share with this world in so much need of hearts like yours. Love, and hugs from Great Grandpa and Grandma Reller.

“ Oh sweet Aubrey I so remember Grandma Shiela and I taking you for a walk when we visited California. You decided you did not want to be in the stroller so Grandma Shiela and I took turns carrying you. ❤️❤️ Will always remember that smile.
