Mrs. Gilder was born November 16, 1939, in Vardaman, MS. She was a follower of Christ at The Orchard Church in Collierville, TN. As a Christian woman, she volunteered her time with the Tennessee Baptist Disaster Relief Organization where she assisted in the aid of others after Hurricane Katrina in 2005. All through her life, she valued her time entertaining her family, along with any other person she met. Her family will always remember her talent for cooking, gardening, and sewing. Once a year, she would pack her bags and travel to the United Kingdom to visit her family. As the fall season approached, nothing came in her way of watching the Ole Miss Rebels play.

Mrs. Gilder is survived by her daughters, Rivers Gilder of Oxford, MS, Tara (Prith) Gilder-Rai of Stroud, UK; sons, Jefferson (Caroline) Gilder of Collierville, TN, Robert (RE) Gilder of Memphis, TN; seven grandchildren, Rhett Evan (Kendal) Gilder of Senatobia, MS, Suzannah Gilder of Collierville,
