Ms. Barbara Jean Moore, 82, peacefully passed away Friday, November 24, 2023, at her home in Sardis, MS. A private Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Ms. Barbara was born on March 24, 1941, in Hornsby, TN to Esker and Vadein Haskins. At an early age, Barbara became an incredibly strong, self-sufficient woman. She was extremely passionate about anything she believed in and was never afraid to speak her mind. She never left you wondering what she was thinking or where you stood with her. Being an avid reader, she would envelope herself in countless novels and would often read her favorites multiple times. Barbara became a very intelligent and well-rounded woman from all of her reading. Barbara also had a love for watching Westerns, especially "Yellowstone."

Ms. Barbara was well known for having the most amazing "green thumb," and she had an amazing collection of plants that she nursed over the years, which she was so proud of. She had a great love for the outdoors, whether it be gardening, building a fire, or simply cutting her grass. However, She loved nothing more than her greatest passion, fishing. Any chance she had, Barbara would be somewhere baiting a hook. Barbara passed this love on to her son,

Matt, and all of her beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren to come. She also loved to make it known that she could out-fish anyone who dared to challenge her! Barbara truly lived a life full of excitement, making countless memories along the way. She will truly be missed by her family and all who knew her.

Ms. Barbara is survived by her son, Matthew (Christy) Walker of Sardis; her daughter, Carmen Wrenn of Sardis; her brother, Sammy (Suzie) Haskins of Covington, TN; 11 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Ms. Barbara was preceded in death by her husband, Richard Moore; her parents, Esker Haskins and Vadein Haskins; her daughter, Rebekah Appleton; and her two sisters, Rebecca Orton and Betty Jo Wilburn.

Online condolences may be left on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.

“ I will miss you watching out for Dan when he was in the the yard. I know he will miss talking over the fence about the garden, the chickens, and fishing and hunting. I was so thankful for that. Rest in peace Ms. Barbara. So sorry and prayers to the family.
