I miss you so much mother. And daddy and Berb. The flowers are blooming. The trees are putting on their new leaves and colors. Know how much you and daddy loved the spring and then the fall, when the colors of trees would turn again. I know this is only a glimpse of what you all are seeing in heaven. I'll be thinking of ya'll this Sunday on Easter; the day Jesus Christ arose! Please don't forget my birthday is coming real soon. I'll love ya'll forever. Bell Cow

“ My mother. How I long to see you and hear your voice. We started 2018 without you, daddy, and Berb. I know you all are having the time of your lives. I hope Berb gave you and daddy the good news about one of ya'lls prayers being answered. I only wish you and daddy could have been hear for it. I want to believe you and daddy were watching from heaven and were overjoyed. Prayers do live on. I miss and love you mother. You'll always be in my heart.

“ Barbara, I was so sorry to learn of the death of your mother. I remember visiting with you two at the hospital in Oxford some years ago. I also am grateful for yours and your mother's prayers for my mother when she underwent and was recovering from bypass surgery. May you and your family draw strength from the love and support of family and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to the children of Bernice.

She and A.Q. were not only family, but neighbors of my parents. After my father passed away Bernice sat with my mother at home and when she was hospitalized.

She took such good care of her and they loved each other like mother and daughter. Bernice did for her what I was not able to do, due to my work responsibilities.

I will always have an appreciation of her for this.

Keeping you in my thoughts and prayers.
