

Billie May Coleman

May 7, 1932 - November 15, 2015

Billie May Coleman, 83, passed away November 15, 2015, at her residence in Hernando, MS. The funeral service will be held Wednesday, November 18, 2015 at 1:00 P.M. at the Southaven Church of Christ. Visitation will be held from 11:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. prior to the service. Burial will follow in Memphis Memory Garden Cemetery in Memphis, TN. Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch is in charge of arrangements.

Born to the late George and Azia McCoy in Burnsville, MS, Mrs. Billie was retired from General Electric after 33 years and enjoyed traveling with her husband, Horace. She was an active member of Southaven Church of Christ, and was a shining example of a Christian woman to all who knew her. Her family and friends would say that there was nobody that loved The Lord more than Mrs. Billie. She was an excellent cook and enjoyed cooking large meals for her family and delivering homemade meals to anyone who needed help in the community. Mrs. Billie was the backbone of her family and spent as much time as possible with her grandchildren. She loved the beauty of blooming flowers but her love for shopping was far greater. Billie was a true angel here on earth, an inspiration to any life she touched. She was married to the love her life and best friend for 43 years. Mrs. Billie will be remembered as a caring, compassionate, loving wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. Along with her parents, she is preceded in death by two sisters, Nadine McCoy and Ethel Hardwick.

Survivors include her husband, Horace Coleman of Hernando, MS; two daughters, Leah Ruby-Smith and her husband, David of Coldwater, MS, Deena Coleman of Hernando, MS; two sons, Larry Spillman and his wife, Michelle of Hobbs, New Mexico, Jerry Spillman of Nashville, TN; seven grandchildren and sixteen great grand children.

Memorial Contributions in Mrs. Billie May Coleman's Memory may be made to Alzheimers Association National Capital Area Chapter, 3701 Pender Drive Suite 400 FairFax, VA 22030, or Spring Valley Hospice, 7139 Commerce Drive #B Olive Branch, MS 38654, or Baptist Hospice.
