

Bradley Bailey Brewer

January 3, 2015

Bradley Bailey Brewer, 72, died Saturday, January 3, 2015, at his home in Harmontown, MS.

Born in Levelland, TX, Mr. Brewer had lived in this area for 25 years. He had worked in human resources for Shell Oil Company for many years. When there was a disaster relating to the company, he was known as the "Voice of Shell" being the one who made status reports to the media. Mr. Brewer was involved in community theater in various roles that included acting, singing, and directing in such plays as "Miracle Worker" and "Biloxi Blues". He won a community theater award for his role as Howard in "Picnic". Spending time with his family was a pleasure for Mr. Brewer.

Survivors include his wife, Beverly Brewer of Harmontown, MS; one sister, Beverly Berry of Bartlett, TN; three grandchildren, Amanda Adams, Judson Adams, and Rebecca Adams; 4 great-grandchildren.

His parents, Warren and Jane Brewer, and his daughter, Shannon Brewer Adams, preceded Mr. Brewer in death.

Memorials may be made to the American Lung Association of Mississippi, P.O. Box 2178, Ridgeland, MS 39158.

Online condolences may be left on the Tribute Wall of this website.
