

Carol A. Stewart

August 7, 1947 - November 20, 2018

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Mrs. Carol Stewart, 71, passed away Tuesday, November 20, 2018, at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Southaven, MS. There are no services planned at this time. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Stewart was born in Miami, FL. She served as a supervisor for the IRS for 18 years. Mrs. Stewart greatly enjoyed sewing and quilting. She had a passion for oil painting and she was known for being extremely creative. Mrs. Stewart had a deep affection of hummingbirds as well as traveling and listening to MercyMe. She also had a great love of animals.

Mrs. Stewart is survived by her loving husband, David Stewart of Holly Springs, MS; one daughter, Wendy Underwood of Como, MS; and one brother, Harry (Mary Beth) Ehney of Lexington, KY.

Mrs. Stewart was preceded in death by her parents, William Ehney and Santina "Tina" Ehney.

Donations and memorials in honor of Mrs. Carol Stewart may be made to the donor's local animal shelter.

Online condolences may be left on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.

“ She was a daily inspiration of "keep your head up without complaining" role model. We shared many great, funny, sad, hopeful times together. I am thankful and grateful to the Lord for choosing this Lady to be my Mother. I will always love you Momma

Wendy, I will always remember your mom's laugh and her New Year's Day cooking! She was always so thoughtful to me and my kids. I truly enjoyed the times we got to spend with her. I am so sorry for your loss. I know it brings you comfort that she loved the Lord and that she is in His presence without any pain and with all her great memories now! I continue to pray for unexplainable peace for you and for David.

*Much love,
Cindy*
