I am very sorry about your loss. Casey was one of my favorite students. I absolutely loved the way he would say my name. He always had a good laugh or smile even if he did not want to do something. I remember the excitement he had when he started driving to school and I would walk him out to his car at dismissal. He was known by all of the students at school. He was independent and could light up a room if he was watching a funny movie or read something in a book that he thought was funny. He will be missed.
