“ Mr. Lynn was such a wonderful man, I am so sad to hear of his passing. He loved his family, and shared a birthdate with his great grandson Cooper (Lynn) who was also named for him. He will not be forgotten.

All my love to Gloria, Terrice and Cynthia, Jacob and all their families as they learn to live without their loved one. I know he was safely delivered into the arms of Jesus and received by so many other family members and good friends. Blessings and prayers

“ On one of our many fishing trips that my dad took me on when I was a kid, I caught a six pound catfish. Dad was real proud that I had caught such a big fish. He put it in the cooler of water with the others & at the end of our day we headed back to my grandparents house.

All the way home it bothered me that my fish would end up dinner for someone & not get to live. My dad ended up keeping that fish alive by running water through it's gills & the next day we headed back home to Mississippi and we picked out a place along the Coldwater river to let the catfish go free.

This was the caring person he was & I'm fortunate to have had him for my father ... 🧡
