“Pete was the most likeable, honest and generous man I ever knew. He always saw the best in people and never spoke poorly of anyone. He was a terrific athlete who excelled in several sports and was very competitive in everything he approached. He was the best golf partner I ever had and more importantly he was the best friend I ever had. I will miss him dearly. Don Derych

Many great memories of Pete from our racquetball days. He was a great doubles partner who made up for my weak backhand with his Popeye sized left arm. Always a good guy to be around.
