

Clara Faye Savage

September 8, 1933 - August 29, 2024

Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

Clara Faye Savage, 90, passed away on Thursday, August 29, 2024. Friends and family are invited to a visitation with the family on Friday, September 6, 2024 from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. with the service to follow at 11:00 a.m., all at Clearview Baptist Church in Southaven, MS. Interment will be at Marked Tree Cemetery in Marked Tree, AR. Dr. Cory Knepshield will officiate.

Faye was born on September 8, 1933 in Rianza, MS. She was a member of Clearview Baptist Church in Southaven. Faye was married to the love of her life, Paul, for 55 years up to the time of his passing. She was exceptionally witty and was a master at crocheting, sharing her passion with many who were the fortunate recipients of her gifts. Faye also had a heart for Christian music and beloved old hymns. That same love was felt towards her pastor and church family.

Left to cherish Faye's memory are her daughters, Paula Crum (David) of Knoxville, TN, and Susan Savage of Southaven, MS; son, Ricky Savage (Debbie) of Jackson, TN; sister, Sarah Francis Arnold of Southaven; five grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

Faye was preceded in death by her husband, Paul Edward Savage; parents, Clinton Lamar and Maybelle Hardin Wayne; and, sister, Mary Alice Billions.

In lieu of traditional flowers, donations may be made in Faye's name to Clearview Baptist Church (<https://clearviewbaptist.org>).

Online condolences may be made on her tribute wall at www.colemanfuneralhomeob.com

“ A precious child of God is Home. She was the most caring and loving person I've ever known. She loved her family, her church family and her Pastor. She had many challenges but always faced them head on. She had a big heart and tenderly took everyone she knew under her wings. She will be greatly missed by all but I know the angels are rejoicing.
