To celebrate his homecoming with Jesus, his family will have a visitation on Monday, August 23, 2021, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. at Broadway Baptist Church (7400 Getwell Rd, Southaven, MS 38672). East, Southaven, MS 38672) is in charge of arrangements.

Clay was born in New Orleans, LA on March 15, 1983, with an uncanny ability to make everyone love him. His generous spirit and talkative personality made him a friend to many. His parents have many fond memories of Clay as a small child, easily convincing them to buy him toys using his dynamic and natural sales ability. Always laughing, he loved jokes and was a master of trivial knowledge. Rarely could Clay be seen without a huge smile on his face, which was infectious to others. Those who were able to know and love Clay, will truly feel his loss, miss his engaging personality, and his smiling countenance.

Mr. Payne, a lifelong Baptist, graduated from Northpoint Christian School (formerly SBEC) in Southaven, MS and The University of Mississippi with a Baccalaureate Degree. Clay loved the mountains and nature and could often be found hiking or canoeing.

Mr. Clayton "Clay" Payne leaves behind his loving parents, James Ewing "Jim" Payne and Donna "Sue" Worley Payne of Southaven, MS; his daughter, Molly Rose Pederson-Selby of London, England, his sister Rebecca Payne "Becky" (Brian) Boles of Bentonville, AR; his four nieces, Margaret "Maggie" Elaine Boles, Sarah Kathryn Boles, Elizabeth Rebecca Boles and Lydia Ruth Boles all of Bentonville, AR.

In lieu of flowers, Clay's family requests that memorial Contributions be made to John 3:16 Ministries (<https://john316thecure.com/ministry/>), Redeemer Baptist Church in Olive Branch, MS (<https://redeemerolivebranch.com/>) or Broadway Baptist Church (<https://broadwaychurch.org/>).

“ Adam Beasley & I reminisced on some of our favorite memories tonight. There are many for me and much more for Adam. I could always count on you to take me up on all of my offerings- a frozen hankie for a hot PHISH concert, food (always), a couch to watch Game of a Thrones on, a pan of banana bread (I never got that pan back Clay Payne!) & anything & everything else. What an amazing spirit you are. Your energy and stories brought life to any space while with us on earth. What a wonderful time we had with you just a few weeks ago. You will be missed Clay ❤️

“ Clay was a kind, welcoming presence at the front desk of Pinnacle Country Club in Rogers, AR. We quickly became friends when I started working there after moving to town. He always welcomed me in his home and showed me around Fayetteville. He was a loving father who doted over Molly and I remember how heartbroken he was when he couldn't be near her. A genuine and gentle soul, a very intelligent yet unpretentious man. I was sad when he left town, and sadder now that he has left us for good. I'm happy to have some reminders of him still around: a keyboard he lent me, some posters he sent me home with once. He will be in my memories fondly as long as I can manage it. Love to his family and his daughter.

“ You have our deepest sympathy, thoughts and prayers for comfort and peace during what must be this most difficult time. Praise the Lord, you will be reunited with Clay some day! Praise the Lord he is whole with no earthly struggles. He was such a good friend to the “boys” & they will miss him terribly. Their hearts are heavy with a grief they are finding hard to understand.

We will continue to lift you in prayer in the days to come.
