Dawn's favorite color was robin egg blue. She adored flowers, but her favorite were sunflowers. Dawn loved all kinds of different sea creatures especially dolphins. She was the boss of the kitchen, when it came to cooking she knew what she was doing. She was always cooking for everyone, one of her favorite past times was being able to cook meals for other people, delivering meals for "share a meal" for the church, for families in the church, and for events such as funerals and births. Dawn was always such a giving and loving person if you needed anything you could always count on her. If you were ever feeling down she was the one person that could bring you back up. She loved to take care of her family and babies that she babysat for. Dawn was always fond of children so when she was able to work at the children's ministry she could have not been more elated. She not only worked with children but, she also spent a lot of time helping the Elders of the church. Dawn was big on crocheting, she loved to show off the things she would make for others. She enjoyed spending time fishing, working in a food pantry for 2 years, and setting up communion in church with her husband. They also enjoyed praying together and praying for everyone in need. They both love the Lord with all their hearts, souls, and minds - prayer was an everyday must. Dawn was known to be a note taker, she was very diligent on everything she did and set her mind to. She also enjoyed watching House Hunters, which was one of her favorite shows and was absolutely fascinated with houses. Most of all, Dawn loved her family, friends, and her church family, and will be truly missed.

Dawn leaves behind her husband, Allan Burley of Olive Branch; four daughters, Christina McCollum (Ray) of Clarkston, MI, Teale Burley of Shelby TWP, Lia DeMartin (John) of Chesterfield, Kim Dobson of Lake Orion; two sons, David Saunders of Oshkosh, WI and Mathew Saunders of Rochester Hills; three brothers, Michael Belleville of Anderson, SC, Russell "Scotty" Mitchell of Betsy Layne, KY, Gregg Mitchell; sister, Tammy Wright of Livonia; uncle, Charles "Chuck" Mitchell (Joyce) of Oscoda; three grandsons, Cameron Yeszin and Hayden McCollum of Clarkson, Giovanni DeMartin of Chesterfield; four granddaughters, Savannah Whetzel of Clarkson, Zoey Dobson of Lake Orion, Jasmine and Natalie Saunders of Oshkosh, WI.
