

Dean Morris Courson

May 12, 2022 - November 1, 2022

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Dean Morris Courson passed peacefully in his parents' arms on November 1st, 2022 after fighting bravely for 173 days in the NICU. Born 15 weeks premature, Dean made a dramatic entrance into the world on May 12th, 2022 with a strong cry and a fiery personality despite his small size of only 1 pound 12 ounces. He is remembered by his parents and caregivers as an unusually strong, feisty, funny, beautiful baby boy. He is survived by his loving parents Sarah Carson and Dillon Courson. A memorial service will be held to celebrate his life at Splinter Creek in Taylor, MS on Sunday November 13th at 3pm.

Monetary donations can be given in Dean's memory to the following organizations:
