

Debra Brown Newsom

January 10, 1954 - August 11, 2024

Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

Debra “Debbie” Brown Newsom, 70, passed at home in Byhalia, MS on Sunday, August 11, 2024. There are no services scheduled at this time.

Debbie was born on January 10, 1954, in Memphis, TN. While she was still working, she ran a home daycare. Debbie was strong, resilient, and independent. She was generous and thoughtful. She never met a stranger and had countless friends. Debbie loved animals, especially her beloved Yorkies. She was also an avid gardener and spent time on her beautiful flower beds and houseplants. Above all else, she loved her family fiercely! Her children and granddaughter were her world.

Debbie was preceded in death by her parents, Christine and Homer Brown, and brothers, Butch and James Brown.

Debbie is survived by her children, Aimee Newsom and Chad Newsom (Brittany); granddaughter, Lizzie Newsom; sister, Janice Melton; nephews, Shea (Karen) and Scott (Emily); and great-nephews and nieces, Savannah, Owen, Brandon, Leighton, and Lily Ryan.

In lieu of traditional flowers, donations may be made in Debra Newsom’s name to the ASPCA (www.aspca.org).

Online condolences may be left on her tribute wall at www.colemanfuneralhomeob.com.

“ I have found memories of this woman. Her son along with myself were friends growing up in Memphis. She was kind sweet and an amazing person. Heaven gained an angel while earth lost a mom grandmother and a wonderful good hearted person. Thank you for my childhood memories growing up in Memphis. God bless you
