

Debra Williams

November 6, 1955 - July 26, 2024

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Debra “Debbie” Williams, 68, passed Friday, July 26, 2024, in Southaven, MS. A visitation to honor her life will be held on Wednesday, August 7, 2024, from 11:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven (626 Star Landing Road East, Southaven, MS 38672). A funeral service will follow her visitation at 1:00 p.m., also at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. Internment will be at Twin Oaks Cemetery (290 Goodman Road East, Southaven, MS 38671). Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements.

Debbie was a lifelong resident of Southaven. She knew all of her neighbors and was a person who was a friend to everyone. She was very witty and one might think Facebook was invented just for her.

She loved fiercely, particularly her family. She was a beloved and wonderful mother, but perhaps her true calling was as “Nana” to her precious grandchildren and the loves of her life, Alexandra and Chaston.

Ms. Williams was a devout Christian and a lifelong Baptist. She was a member of Carriage Hills Baptist Church in Southaven, MS, where she taught Sunday School and sang in the choir. Debbie was a true woman of God, who could recite scripture, from memory, appropriate for any circumstance.

Debbie leaves behind her daughter and best friend, Ashley Ingram of Southaven; her granddaughter, Alexandra Ingram; and her grandson, Chaston Ingram all of Southaven, MS; her two sisters, Donna Chrestman of Coldwater, MS and Denise Bennett of Southaven; her three nieces, Dacia Collins and Jocelyn (Brian) Watts, both of Southaven, and Kristin (Chris) House of Byhalia; and her nephew, Kody Chrestman of Memphis to cherish her memory.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George Whitten and Delaine McBride Shands.

Expressions of condolences may be left on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhomes.com.

“ Taking off work and checking me out early from school. taking me shopping and out to eat at my favorite restaurant when I had an awful day and my friends had been so mean to me. She hugged me and wiped my tears and we sang along to the radio. She made my sad days so much better. She made my life so much better. Then, when I had a daughter, she did the exact same thing for her too. She was the best of the best.
