He was a very nice man. He painted my house 3 years ago and put up a wood ceiling on my Porch. He always made me laugh. He brought me sausage gravy and biscuits for Breakfast! Just a really good guy and God Bless his Family. RIP Mr. Hanna.

“ I remember the first time I met you, then you come over to meet the girl laying out in the sun with the BIG.....eyes. I took a truck trip with you to keep you awake. I introduced my baby sister to you. Donell. Soon you won Donnie over by taking her to Angels grave site and just sat with her, Few years later Beth, then Mandy and finely Mikey. You cared for them, loved Donnie and cared for your kids. Many times I would come over and you would be laying on the couch, and I'd ask were Donnie was. She would give a little giggle and flip the cover, and yall were cuddling. Your food and fireworks were the best in town. I'm Glad yall stuck it together. You make a great team. Look at your kids, all grown and doing great things. You did good Raising them with Donnie at your side. You helped my dad work on his cars. You always made sure to send food home with momma. You took good care of our momma and daddy. I'll miss you so much. No one could have cared for Donell, Beth, Mandy and Mikey any better. I feel blessed to have been your friend all these years.

“ The first time we met Dennis, he was giving us a bid on painting my mother's house.

Little did we know he would be such an unexpected blessing to our family He went above and beyond painting to minister and encourage us (as we lost our mom some months ago). He especially befriended mom's dog Annabelle. He would bring her bones and treats. He brought her chicken biscuits because he had stopped to get him one. He let her in and out at her leisure. They were friends from the first day. (No wonder she would turn up her nose when I would offer her a treat. She wanted a chicken biscuit! :-)

Such a gentle giant of a man who became our friend.

Our hearts break for his family. We can only imagine the pain you are going through. To love much is to grieve much. You're all in our thoughts and prayers.

Dennis told us there wasn't a day he didn't miss his dad. His dad had told him not to grieve for him because he was in a better place. "Just take care of your mom", his dad had said. He then went on to say my mom would not want us to grieve for her for "she is in a better place". Today, Dennis is with them in that better place. While a comfort, it doesn't lessen the heartbreak. Please know, family, that you're being lifted up in prayer.

Only God is big enough.....
