

Doris Maybelle Kaiser

June 21, 1930 - November 30, 2021

Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

Doris, also known as “Momma” to her girls, “Muddy” to her grandchildren, and “Daaaaas!” to Daddy, lived her life for Jesus, her husband, and her family. She taught school for 32 years and made a difference in so many children’s lives. She and Daddy were always givers. It has been so wonderful throughout the years to hear the stories of how Mom & Dad provided food and Christmas for children of relatives who otherwise would have had nothing. They made sure that family had everything they needed and always put themselves last.

She and Daddy spent many retirement years enjoying their grandchildren and great-grandchildren. When Daddy went to be with the Lord Momma started working at Comtrak and she loved the people there with all her heart. She was a member of Church of the Harvest and enjoyed attending the ministry school there.

She leaves behind four daughters, Gloria Kaiser Andreoli (Leo), Carolyn Kaiser Pirani, Sharon Kaiser Gross (Billy), and Patricia Kaiser Thomas.

She also leaves behind three granddaughters, Tiffany Andreoli Temple (Johnny), Doris Andreoli, and Becky Gross Martin (Lee).

She leaves behind four grandsons, Anthony Andreoli (Christy), Nicholas Pirani, Dale Taylor (April), and Neil Taylor.

She leaves behind five great-granddaughters, Carissa Andreoli, Nicole Lauderdale (Dakota) Martina Pirani, Allie Taylor, Hailey Taylor, and Brooklyne Taylor.

She leaves behind six great-grandsons, Cody Temple, Sam Temple (Lauren), Lukas Pirani, Liam Pirani, Joseph Taylor, and Justin Taylor.

She leaves behind two great-great-granddaughters, Huntleigh Lauderdale and Bella Temple, as well as her beloved pups Bindi Bell and Happie Doo.

We can't wait to see her again and spend all of eternity with her in Heaven!

Online condolences may be left at her tribute wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.
