Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Dorothy Grace Bell, 61, of Greenwood, Mississippi passed away on Saturday, February 08, 2025, at Baptist Memorial Hospital North Mississippi.

A celebration of life for Dottie will be held at a later date with details to follow.

Dorothy, better known to her family and friends as "Dottie", was born on September 15, 1963, in Greenwood, Mississippi as the youngest of the three daughters born to the late Jerry Wayne Bell and Louise Kuluhiwa Bell.

Dottie graduated with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from Delta State University before entering the workforce as an Advanced-Licensed Social Worker with the Mississippi Department of Human Services for twenty years. At the time of her death, she was currently employed with Cannon Motor Company.

Dottie was a devoted mother to her son, a caring grandmother, as well as a loving sister and she was devout in her Christian faith. As evidenced by her love for her son and grandson, Dottie cherished her strong family ties, and she was proud of the close-knit friendships she leaves behind.

She leaves behind one son, Colby Spruill (Haley) of Oxford, Mississippi; one grandson, Cooper Spruill; two sisters: Joyce Bell of Oxford, Mississippi and Theresa Bell of Greenwood, Mississippi; as well as several children of her heart: Scott Mounger of Nesbit, Mississippi, Julie Bosnick of Marianna, Arkansas, Kassie Scates of Greenwood, MS, and Lauren Easterling of Brentwood, TN.

She is preceded in death by her companion of 32 years, Leonard Spruill; mother and father, Louise Kuluhiwa Bell and Jerry Wayne Bell.

The family has requested that donations be given to St. Jude Children's Research in memory of George Michael Mounger, by clicking the following link <https://tinyurl.com/546dtcfx>.

The staff at Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford are honored to assist the family during this difficult time. Condolences may be expressed online on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhomeox.com
