November 10, 2017

Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

Mr. Dorris Guy Rodgers, 70, passed away Friday, November 10, 2017, at his residence in Byhalia, MS. Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Rodgers was born in Shannon, MS, and resided in Mississippi most of his life. He enjoyed life and laughed a lot. He would go for long drives in the Mississippi countryside; watch the barges on the Mississippi River; and from the comfort of his recliner, watch old westerns on television, especially those starring John Wayne. Mr. Rodgers loved eating Mexican food, especially chicken burritos with rice and beans. He was quick to share his knowledge and ideas about the best way to 'fix' things. His laughter will be greatly missed by beloved family and friends. In lieu of flowers, memorials and donations may be sent to the American Diabetes Association, American Heart Association, American Lung Association, or American Cancer Society.

Mr. Rodgers is survived by his son, Stephen Guy Rodgers (Tiffany) of Olive Branch, MS; sister Betty Jo Ingram of Nampa, ID; brother, John Harold Rodgers (Cindy) of Byhalia; grandchildren Teal Nicole, Stephen Robert, Joy Lynn Rodgers of Olive Branch; and great-grandson, Tucker Guy Rodgers of Olive Branch.

Mr. Rodgers was preceded in death by his parents George and Lillie Rodgers; sister, Ruby Lee Rainwater; and brothers, Roy Eugene and James Wesley Rodgers.
