Doyle was born to William Daniel and Dorothea Mae Williams on August 16, 1945 in Martin, Tennessee. Throughout his life, he exhibited true Christian ideals and values, as he was a faithful follower of Jesus Christ. Mr. Williams was a member of SouthPoint Church in Southaven and served the church and in Celebrate Recovery at SouthPoint. He was a wonderful husband and provider, and an amazingly devoted father to his seven children.

Doyle was a character! He loved to play jokes, pull pranks, and was a friend to everyone, as he truly never met a stranger. He and his wife, Phyllis, loved to travel and as they visited all fifty states, Doyle would frequently run into friends in far corners of the U.S. – even once in Alaska! He collected cups and caps from their vacations and had an enormous collection. As a lover of all sports,

Doyle was an avid fan of the Tennessee Titans, the St. Louis Cardinals, and the Memphis Tigers. He was extremely energy conscientious and was always trying save electricity. Doyle could estimate the wattage amount for each household device. Incredibly intelligent, he should have been an engineer!
