Mr. Hellums was born August 16, 1980, in Memphis, TN. He worked for most of his life in construction, where he has been a Master Plumber for around 10 years. Two years ago, he achieved his dream job of working for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, and he loved every second of it. Duston was an avid outdoorsman, enjoying camping in his free time. He also enjoyed going to different hot rod car shows, watching any of the Marvel or DC Series movies, and coloring. He was known to be the definition of a selfless man. He had a unique selfless trait that allowed him to always put others before himself. He had such a big heart and was an amazing family man. He would truly do anything he could for others in need. He will be truly missed by all who knew him.

Mr. Hellums is survived by his wife, Melissa Hellums of Southaven; his son, Dylan Ray Hellums of Southaven; his father, Danny Hellums of Southaven; and his sister, Melissa Hellums of Cordova, TN.

Mr. Hellums was preceded in death by his mother, Eva Marie Hellums.

“ You are part of my heart dear sweet Dusty and part of mine went with you. I could call on you anytime and you were the first to lend a hand give your Aunt Cindy a hug and go out of your way to make everyone around you feel better. Your goofy sense of humor. Your generous heart. We are lost. I loved you baby
