Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Eddy Dean Brackin, 78, of Oxford, passed away on Wednesday, April 29, 2026, at his residence with his family by his side.

The family has elected not to host any services and will mourn his passing privately, leaning on one another for support.

Eddy graced this world with his presence on December 31, 1947, in Hayti, Missouri, as a son born to the late Robert Clyde Brackin and Mattie Joyce Jones Brackin.

Eddy will be remembered as a loving husband, devoted father, and the grandest of grandfathers—a man whose heart belonged to his family. As one of sixteen children, he understood the meaning of togetherness and cherished every moment spent with loved ones. Whether cheering on a favorite team, enjoying the peace of the outdoors, or preparing a meal, Eddy found joy in creating memories with those closest to him. His homemade yeast rolls, biscuits, and iron skillet pancakes were more than just food; they were expressions of his warmth and care, leaving a legacy of comfort and love that will be deeply missed.

Eddy leaves behind a loving family to continue walking down the path of life in his absence; his beloved wife of 58 years, Carol Brown Brackin of Oxford, Mississippi; two daughters: Kim Brackin Stewart of Oxford, Mississippi; Amy Brackin Ward and her husband Brian of Helena, Arkansas; five grandchildren: Madison Buckner and her husband Bryce of Helena, Arkansas; Zoe Brinkman and her husband Chandler of Sherwood, Arkansas; Peyton Ward and his wife Anna of Drummonds, Tennessee; Callie Stewart of Oxford, Mississippi; Teale Stewart of Costa Mesa, California; five great grandchildren; five siblings: Linda Allen of Missouri; Carmelita McIntyre of Missouri; Robert Lynn Brackin of Missouri; Frank Brackin of California; Manual Brackin of California; and longtime friend, Buddy Lynn of Cherokee Village, Arkansas.

The loved ones who departed from this life include: his parents, Robert Clyde Brackin and Mattie Joyce Jones Brackin; one son, Eddy Trever; ten siblings: Billy Brackin, Jerry Brackin, Paul Brackin, Patsy Maranto, Norma Henry, Jackie Ermer, Alice McCool, Nick Brackin, Mary Holloway, and Sandy Bass.

The staff at Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is honored to serve the family during this challenging season of life. Condolences may be expressed online on his Tribute wall at www.colemanfuneralhomeox.com.

“ From the time I was a small child, I always enjoyed going to Visit Uncle Eddy! I could listen to his old stories about the family for hours! He was always going to tell you about Jesus and great Life lessons. I have always said if I had to pick another man to be my dad, other than my own, it would have been Uncle Eddy! I will miss him so much!

“ He helped me learn to hit in baseball, when I was having difficulty. He didn't have to, but he took time out of his visit to go to the ballfield to teach me. I hit much much better after that short bit of coaching from him. It's something I've always remembered. Love and miss you, Uncle Eddy. I'll see you again soon, I'm sure.

“ Sweet family, we send our deepest condolences for the loss of Uncle Eddy. He has left a beautiful legacy in all of you. We are so thankful for the visits and cherished memories over the years even though they were too few. He was such a kind and loving uncle who was always quick with a hug and a smile. His hospitality and wonderful cooking made everyone feel welcome. I loved listening to his stories of growing up with my dad and our other aunts and uncles. We will miss him dearly, yet it is nice to think of the reunion he is having with our Lord and loved ones in Heaven. I know it shines a little brighter with his presence. May God bless and comfort you all. With love and prayers,
Shelly and Nathan
