

Elizabeth Gail Nichols

October 3, 2013

Elizabeth Gail Nichols (Aunt Betty), 94, died Thursday, October 3, 2013, at Hermitage Gardens in Oxford, Mississippi. Funeral service will be held at College Hill United Methodist Church in Wichita, Kansas at 1:00 on Friday, November 29. Graveside services will follow at the Wichita Park Cemetery in Wichita, Kansas.

Born in Wichita Kansas, Aunt Betty studied Music at Friends University and at Kansas State University. After taking the Civil Service exam in 1942 she began her career with the Federal government working in Washington, D.C, Los Angeles, Honolulu, and Denver until she settled in Oakland California in 1955. She was a dedicated member of the Tice Valley United Methodist Church in Walnut Creek, California and a woman of many passions. She loved her dogs, Allegro and Garth, to play her Viola de Gamba, travel the world and play Bingo.

Elizabeth Nichols was predeceased by her three brothers, Lewis Nichols of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Jack Nichols of Wichita, Kansas and Donald Nichols of Newark, Delaware.
