Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Elizabeth Louise “Betty” Wilkinson, 86, passed away Friday, August 27, 2010 in Oxford, MS. Visitation will be held Wednesday, September 1, 2010, 10:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m. at College Hill Presbyterian Church in Oxford with a memorial service in her honor following at 11:00 a.m.

Mrs. Wilkinson was born in Memphis, TN to Willie Lee and Allen Briggs Nichols who preceded her in death. A sister, Bernice Gullede of Dallas, TX also preceded her in death.

Mrs. Wilkinson was a homemaker all her life. She was a wonderful, loving, and loyal wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She enjoyed cooking, gardening, dancing, playing bridge, entertaining and being with her family and friends. At the time of her death, she was a member of College Hill Presbyterian Church in Oxford and the Barnabas Ladies Study Group.

Survivors include her husband of 66 years, John Wilkinson, Jr. and one daughter, Patti Wrenn (husband Bob), both of Oxford, MS; grandchildren, Nick Harrison of Oxford, MS, Josh Harrison of Brandon, MS and Lyndee Phillips (husband Marc) of Winchester, KY. Her beloved great-grandchildren are John Nichols Harrison, Jr. of Oxford, MS and Miles Dean Phillips of Winchester, KY.

The family wishes to thank Baptist Home Care and Hospice, Walt Eddington, Lee Booker, Dr. Laura Fowlkes-Young and friend, Norma Flemmons for taking such good care of her these last days of her life on earth. Coleman Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Memorials may be made to the Alzheimer's Association and Baptist Home Care and Hospice.
