

Emmett Harrison White

July 2, 2009

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Emmett Harrison White, age 93, died Thursday, July 2, 2009, at the Mississippi State Veterans Home in Oxford, MS.

A World War II veteran of the U.S. Army, Mr. White had live the majority of his life in Oxford, MS. He was self-employed as an automobile mechanic who had a special interest in Volkswagens. This interest prompted him to restore and re-build many of these vehicles. Mr. White was a member of Bethel Baptist Church.

A memorial service will be held Friday, July 3, 2009, at 3:00 p.m. in the Coleman Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Robert Frierson officiating. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include four sons, Roy White (Betty Jo) of Crenshaw, MS and Tom White (Sandy), Dennis White (Carolyn) and Paul White all of Oxford, MS; 12 grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

Mr. White was preceded in death by his wife, Ida Olean White; his parents, Alonzo and Florena H. White; one daughter, Loma Alston.

Memorials may be made to Disabled American Veterans (DAV), c/o Bob Freeman, 36 CR 186, Oxford, MS 38655.