

Ernest Allen Lavender Sr.

August 21, 2013

Ernest Allen Lavender, Sr., 68, died Wednesday, August 21, 2013, at his home in Harmontown, MS.

Born in Memphis, TN and having lived there most of his life, Mr. Lavender had lived in the Harmontown area approximately 14 years. He had worked as a truck driver and a self-employed plumber. Mr. Lavender enjoyed fishing and gadgets. He was a Catholic.

A private family service will be held at a later date. Coleman Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Survivors include three daughters, Becky Medina of Harmontown, MS, Crystal Madru of Snow Lake, MS and Jessica Wilkerson of Ripley, MS; two sons, Allen Lavender of Arlington, TN and Dana Lavender of Columbus, OH; 15 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

His parents, William Clifton and Freida Marie Rische Lavender, Sr., one daughter, Mary Lavender, and two brothers, Gene Lavender and Bill Lavender, all preceded Mr. Lavender in death.

Memorials may be made to Catholic Charities of Memphis.

Tribute Wall

“ Hard to believe you've been gone 10 years already. I miss you so much Daddy. I miss our long talks and I miss your advice more than words can express. I love you Daddy. ”

Crystal Madru - September 01, 2023 at 12:42 PM