

Ervin Wilson Davis

May 28, 2014

Ervin Wilson Davis, 88, died Wednesday, May 28, 2014 at Yalobusha General Hospital in Water Valley, MS.

Born in Amarillo, TX, Mr. Davis grew up in the Cleburn/Fort Worth area. He had moved the family to Oxford in 1964. He worked in tool and die doing engineering the majority of his adult life. Mr. Davis started a tool and die business in 1973. He began preaching at age 19 and preached approximately 22 years. Farming, gardening (particularly raising tomatoes), and cattle were some of the things he enjoyed. Mr. Davis particularly enjoyed time with his grandchildren swimming and telling stories about hunting and fishing. However, he received the most pleasure by having his grandchildren tell him their own hunting and fishing stories. Mr. Davis was a member of the Oxford Church of Christ.

Visitation will be held Saturday, May 31, 2014, 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home with funeral services following at 4:00 p.m. in the Coleman Funeral Home Chapel. Bro. Lendy Bartlett will officiate. Interment will be in the Garden of Memories located at Coleman Funeral Home.

Survivors include two daughters, June (Bob) O'Keefe of Grayson, GA and Jan (Mike) Williams of Abbeville, MS; four sons, Doug (Terri) Davis of Judsonia, AR, Durward (Sharon) Davis and Dale (Lori) Davis both of Abbeville, MS,

Danny (Sandy) Davis of Eagle, CO; 19 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren.

His parents, Pruitt W. and Velma K. Davis, and his wife, Wilma S. Davis, preceded Mr. Davis in death.

Memorials may be made to the Christian Relief Fund, P.O. Box 19670, Amarillo, TX 79114.

“Brother Davis, one of my elders in the church in Oxford as I was growing up, was a wonderful saint of Christ. His sons were and are my friends; I had crushes on both his daughters. I cherish what men like Ervin Davis did for me as I was turning from boy to man. God bless the family there.
