

Fletcher Thomas Chandler

April 11, 1959 - July 29, 2022

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Fletcher Thomas Chandler, 63, passed away Friday, July 29, 2022 at his home in Oxford. A visitation will be held at College Hill Heights Baptist Church from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., with a service immediately following at 12:00 p.m. Interment will be at the Garden of Memories in Oxford. Pastor Ronnie Dickinson and Pastor Christopher Hudson will officiate. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Fletcher is known by his family as being a very unique and simple man. The way he carried himself could be remembered as tough and stern, but for those he loved, there was a soft spot. He had a certain wit about him many appreciated, especially his family. Fletcher was a devoted husband to his wife, Lesia Chandler, and stepfather to his stepsons, Christopher, Brandon, and Anthony. He had a dynamic personality which was expressed by wit, intelligence, and love. His family will tell you there is no other way to describe him other than, "that's just the way he is".

He was a member of College Hill Heights Baptist Church, where he served faithfully. He was a very giving individual who wanted to share God's word with whoever would listen. He would witness to anyone who would stand still long enough, and he never had a problem sharing his faith.

If you were Fletcher's friend, you had a friend forever. Loyalty defined him. Fletcher will be missed by all those who loved and cherished him.

The legacy he leaves his family is how to be a good and Godly man. He taught his sons how to put God first, family second, and church third.

Fletcher is survived by his wife, Lesia Veazey Chandler; his stepsons, Christopher (Felicia), Brandon (Natasha), and Anthony (Chrissie) Hudson; three grandchildren, Corban, Asher, and Logan Hudson; his mother and father in law, Elizabeth and Robert Veazey; and two brother-in-laws, Bubba Veazey and Zunkle Sanford.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Wayne T. Chandler and Verna Mae McSwain Chandler; and his sister; Taffie Sanford.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to College Hill Heights Baptist Church Operation Christmas Child Foundation Shoe Box Ministry.

Pallbearers will include J.R. Love, Gary Weaver, Craig Warren, David Springfield, Leif Miller, and Walt Rikard.

Please leave online condolences to his Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.

“ I remember the GP Oxford job like it was yesterday.... Fletch had a little extra “pep” in his step 😊 He loved going over to the office! I always believed Lesia and Fletch to be a match made in Heaven! We are all better because of knowing Fletcher. Our love, thoughts and prayers go Lesia, Family and friends. We will all meet again in a blink and be fishing together soon.

“ Fletcher was a hard working, no nonsense man. Yet he was kind and big hearted. I worked with Fletcher during my early 20s and I have so many fond memories. I was working for Fletcher when he first met Lesia, I remember how happy he was. He would come in the office singing. I am so sorry for your loss.
