Frances loved spending time with her family, especially gatherings with her sisters. She was married to the love of her life, Jim, for forty-seven years in July. Frances was also a proud grandmother, who was called "Nana." Traveling was one of her favorite things to do with her sisters and her friend group called "The Heifers." Frances loved working in the yard, enjoying flowers, hummingbirds and birdfeeders. If you knew Frances, you knew she always had a smile on her face. She was loved by many and will be truly missed.

“ Oh my, Frances! I went to my sister's (Jackie Stickley) apartment one day to find that someone had taken a small bite out of a milky way bar, wrapped it up and laid it down on the coffee table. Who in the world would do such a thing? Why, Frances Lanier! Got to become good friends of her and Jim Gilpatrick. Played many a card game with them. Fond memories...fond memories!
