Geneva was born to the late Lee and Georgia Murray. She married her high school sweetheart Leighton Gates Weeden in Oxford, MS, on April 17, 1957, and they have been married for an amazing 63 years. They moved to Memphis, TN, and she worked for General Electric's Memphis Lamp Plant for 32 years. After retiring, Geneva stayed at home, raising her granddaughters.

Geneva was a member of First Baptist Church of Abbeville and supported the TeamKid discipleship program at Harmontown Baptist Church. She is described by her family as being the most courageous, giving, strong-willed, dependable, and loving individual they know. She put God and family first and was known to all as Granny.

Geneva is survived by her husband, Leighton Gates Weeden, of Oxford; her daughter, Tracie Lee Weeden, of Oxford; her granddaughters, Stephanie LeAnne (Chris) Hancock, of Oxford and Angela Nicole (Jarrod) Golden, of Madison, MS; her great-grandchildren, Zachary Robert Buntyn, Hunter Gates Buntyn, Alex Joseph Hancock, Gracie Jo Hancock, and Leighton Ashley Golden; and two sisters, Martha Ann Allen, of Tupelo, MS, and Sarah Earnestine Holden, of Pinedale, MS.

Geneva was preceded in death by her parents, Lee and Georgia Murray; one brother, Jerry Lee Gafford; and one daughter, Tammy Jo McOwen.

The family would like to thank the staffs of both Sta-Home Hospice and Kindred Home Health and for their loving care and compassion.

“ I loved this sweet lady dearly. She loved everyone especially her daughter and granddaughters that she raised. Ms Geneva was a loving wife to her husband. I always loved being in her van presence because she made you feel as you were the only person in the room. She will be so missed. My prayers are with her sweet precious family

I loved getting to know Frankie on a business trip to Hawaii. Tracie had brought her Mom along as she knew her Mom wanted to go to Hawaii. She was such a trooper and even helped us with our work project while we were there! I saw so many instances of Tracie being such a loving daughter and caring for her Mom! I know she was glad to have lived with her for the last few years! I wish the family peace during this Christmas season knowing she is in the arms of her loving Savior!
