

Mr. George Timothy Boswell

April 18, 2017

George Timothy "Tim" Boswell, 62, passed away at his home in Oxford, MS, Tuesday, on April 18, 2017.

Mr. Boswell was born December 1, 1954, in Clarksville, TN. He attended The University of Mississippi and was the president of his class. He also attended dental school in Jackson, MS. He loved books. Above all else, he loved his family.

There are no services planned at this time.

He is survived by one son, Ian Andrew Boswell of Garden Valley, CA; two brothers, Jonathan (Ellen) Boswell of Lowell, AR, and Luke Boswell of Oxford; and one sister, Rebecca Bowers of St. Thomas, USVI.

He was preceded in death by his parents, George Boswell and Rose Emily Boswell.

Donations and memorials may be made to donors' charity of choice in Mr. Boswell's name.

Online condolences may be left on the Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.

“ So sad to hear of Tim's passing. I haven't seen him in many years, but I've thought of him often. I remember good times hanging out at Janie and Jerome's house, volleyball games and parties, and marathon bridge and cribbage weekends. Tim turned us on to bridge and taught us how to play. He would do anything for you. And he always made us laugh! My heartfelt condolences to family and friends. We'll miss you Tim!

“ My dear Boswell Cousins, Such sad news for one so young. I saw Tim last at Aunt Odesss's Funeral. We talked about old times, gray hair, had a few laughs. Will always remember Tim with a smile in my heart, knowing he is in a better place. My prayers are with you at this time, love to each of you. Nancy Stephens

“ My summer visits to Uncle George's and Aunt Emily's house 50 years ago will always be cherished. Although my time was mostly spent with Jon, the whole family was gracious. After retirement, I have been involved with Habitat for Humanity. Tim and I never got the chance to compare notes on our shared experience. I had a loved one with the same health issues as Tim and was hurt by the isolation and early death. Someone gave me some comfort by assuring me that my loved one was finally finding the peace in death that alluded her while she was in the grips of her disease. Like Jon, I wish that I could have spent more time with Tim. My condolences to Ian and my Boswell cousins for the loss of a kind and sensitive man. Lynn Tucker

“ Tim was a very loyal friend, not a fair weather friend but one that showed up for the difficult times. He showed up for the difficult times in my life, in his father's life, and many other people's lives. He cared, and put that caring into action. His last few years were difficult for him, so I choose to remember the Tim of years gone by. Nevertheless, that caring Tim remained just under the surface. In the end he fought a good fight and won. Now my dear friend has found peace. Thanks you for the times you showed up in my life. : thank you for being a loyal friend. Linda

“ Tim was a wonderful man. I only met him a few times but was touched by his care for those less fortunate. He was generous and free of envy. The world has lost a caring soul.

“ Tim will be missed by all who knew him. We became friends in middle school & played many games of home run derby at Miss Annie's lot, and countless b-ball games at the gyms on campus & football games on the intramural fields. Summers seemed to last forever back then. Tim had an incomparable wit, and was as loyal a friend as you would ever know. I regret the miles separating us over the years. My prayers go out to Jon, Becky, Luke & Ian.

“ Dear Luke and family, I am so sorry for this latest loss. I still have good memories of Dr. George and Emily in their strong middle years, and it's sad that Oxford has lost another Boswell. With much sympathy--Joan W. H.

“ My Dad was a good man. I miss him very much already. I take solace in that the last several times we spent together were not brief.

For years, our relationship was strained, to say the least. I deservedly resented a lot, and once it finally came to a head I let him know in uncertain terms that too many people care about him for him to shut them out. Especially, his only son. God bless him, he truly put forth a concerted effort to repair our relationship. Over the last few months we'd spent more quality time together than in probably over 20 years. I thank the Lord for that blessing as I deal with this very difficult time.

He had faults as we all do. Life is hard. Our family all saw how crushing death can be on those intimately involved through the slow passing of my Grandpa, Dr. Boswell, and his stint with Parkinson's. Dad spent lots of time and energy helping with that situation, and it took a significant toll on his spirit.

To reiterate Jon, please don't bother with sending flowers. Plant some in your yard and enjoy. If you feel inclined to make a charitable donation, I'd suggest Habitat For Humanity, or any other that you are particularly fond of.

Any uplifting, happy memories of my Dad would be greatly appreciated.

I thank everyone for their prayers, thoughts, and love. None are wasted.

You are such a precious, loving son. Tim spent many hours reading the sports section to you while you were in your infant seat! One very fond memory is the year your Dad and Keith both coached your Little League team together. It's a good thing you were a pretty good player because both of them had rather high expectations for you. May you, your uncles and aunt cherish your good memories and forget the others. I love you more than you will ever know. Mom

P.S. I can hardly even see this print so if auto correct has changed some word, figure out what I meant.

I've been missing Tim for years now, but I know I'll see him again. My heart hurts for us all. I always thought there was a poet in Tim. My hope is that he has found peace at last.

I also remember all the good times we shared - hours of bridge and cards, concerts and road trips, bars and volleyball and Tim trying to get up the stairs for the group picture before the shutter clicked... He once sent me suggestions for baby names when I was pregnant - all girls names from songs. My favorite was "Swlabr - She walks like a beautiful rainbow". He put it in the "ethnic-sounding names" category and admitted that it wasn't really a name but was cool none the less. Peace and prayers for you all.
