“ George and I shared many memories over the year while working the entry doors and First Baptist Church, Olive Branch. He was always friendly with everyone as they were coming into the church or leaving.

George loved sports of all types and especially his family. His granddaughters were proud of their Papa and he was proud of them.

Sandra, I will look forward to see you and the girls at church as ya'll come though the entry doors where Perry and I work. May the Lord bless your family.

Dot and I will be praying for you.

“ George always greeted everyone with a smile and “how are you doing”at the door of First Baptist. He was always interested in what you had been doing that week. He was a fine man who loved his family. He will be missed.
