

George D. Moore

December 7, 1957 - January 15, 2021

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

George Darrell Moore, 63, passed away on January 15, 2021, at Methodist University Hospital in Memphis, TN.

A visitation will be held Wednesday, January 20, 2021, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven (626 Star Landing Road, East, Southaven, MS 38672). A celebration of life will immediately follow the visitation at 12:00 p.m., Wednesday, January 20, 2021, also at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. Interment will be at DeSoto Memorial Gardens (630 Star Landing Road East, Southaven, MS 38672). Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Moore was born on December 7, 1957, in Memphis, TN. He found the love of his life, Melanie, at the age of seventeen. George and Melanie celebrated 41 years of marriage and precious memories. Together, they made an incredibly strong family unit, which included their miracle child, their daughter Ashley. George was extremely family-focused. When Ashley was young, the two would often be found fishing together. This tradition translated into a habit of feasting on catfish as Ashley grew older.

George's close family circle also included his in-laws, which due to George's loving nature, he was just as devoted to as he was to his own family of origin. After Ashley grew into a strong young woman, the family circle grew even larger to include her boyfriend Jonathan Hooker, who was like a son to Mr. Moore.

Second to his love of family, was Mr. Moore's love for every type of car – particularly his HHR 2007 Super Sport. Through his fascination with automobiles, George was able to extend a sense of community, which stretched globally, and made the world a better place. George was a member of multiple car clubs, including Ecotech Nation.

George's gregarious nature was known to all he met, as he never met a stranger. He was a kind, hardworking man, who was able to appreciate all forms of music from Classical to Country.

Mr. George D. Moore is survived by his loving wife of 41 years, Melanie Moore of Nesbit, MS; his daughter, Ashley Moore and her boyfriend, Jonathan Hooker of Walls, MS; his brother, David Moore and his fiancé, Nicole Moore of Olive Branch, MS; his nephew, Cory (Jody) Bynum of Huntsville, AL; his mother-in-law, Millie Nethercott of Nesbit; and his sister-in-law, Cherie (Rick) Price of Nesbit.

Mr. Moore was preceded in death by his father, George Moore, Sr.; his mother, Alice Avent Moore; and his father-in-law, Robert Nethercott.

In lieu of traditional gifts, donations and memorials can be made in honor of Mr. George Darrell Moore to the American Heart Association (heart.org).

“ I am George's cousin. I hadn't talked to him in several years, but made contact with him and was able to find out how he and David were doing. I will be praying for all of his family. I know he was very active in the car show scene and I only wish I had been able to visit with him.

“ Sending prayers and my sincere condolences to the family. I had the opportunity to work for and with George for almost 10 years (Flemings/AWG), he was a great manager and friend with a heart of gold. George treated everyone with kindness and was always there with a helping hand. He will be greatly missed!

George, I remember the first time I met you was at the All Star show in Millington. It was an instant friendship! I enjoyed every show we went to together because I knew you had the same love for all kinds of cars that I did and we would talk for hours. I also loved all the stories you have of the Route 66 road trip you took with your brother and all the great rock bands you saw in your lifetime. I will truly miss seeing you at the car shows my friend. Make sure you don't blow God off the road with your HHR! Till we meet again.

Tommy
