

Georgia Faye Copeland

May 16, 2017

Mrs. Georgia Faye Copeland, 80, died Tuesday, May 16, 2017, at St. Joseph Medical Center located in Kansas City, MO.

Born in Parma, MO, Mrs. Copeland lived in Southaven, MS, most of her adult life, before moving to Harrisonville, MO, in 2016. She was a homemaker, who adored her family with every ounce of her being. She loved gardening, almost as much as she enjoyed playing cards with her family and friends. When not tending to her flowers or spending time with her family, you could find her out antiquing for hours on end with "the girls." She cherished every moment she was able to spend making memories with her family.

Visitation will be held Saturday, May 20, 2017, at 10:00 a.m. at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, 4046 Pleasant Hill Rd, Olive Branch, MS, with the funeral service following at 11:00 a.m. in the sanctuary at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. A graveside service will be held at Autumn Woods Memorial Park, 6240 Davidson Rd, Olive Branch, MS 38654, immediately following the funeral service. Bro. Michael Weeks has the honor of officiating the services for Mrs. Copeland. Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include her two daughters, Cyndy (Howard) Knight of Kansas City, MO; Suzan (Ray) Copeland of Nesbit, MS; two sons, Marty (Debbie)

Copeland of Covington, TN; Tracy Copeland of Harrisonville, MO; one sister, Janie (Doyle) Hicks of Risco, MO; two brothers, Jimmy (Shirley) Corn of Phoenix, AZ; Dale (Dixie) Corn of Risco, MO; three granddaughters, Stephanie Klinksick of Peculiar, MO; Ashlie (Steve) Eatinger of Peculiar, MO; Jordan James of Memphis, TN; four great-grandchildren, Hayden Eatinger, Hayley Klinksick, Rylie Eatinger, and Brayden Klinksick all of Peculiar, MO; and her beloved dog, Gracie.

Mrs. Copeland was preceded in death by her husband, Glen Dale Copeland; her parents, Raymond Corn and Edna Medlin Corn; and two sisters, Bonnie and Marilyn.

If you would prefer to make a charitable donation, the family asks that memorial contributions be made in Mrs. Copeland's name to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Tribute Program, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

“ I will never forget the moments that I shared with my Mamaw and Papaw. I'm so incredibly happy that they are finally reunited in heaven forever. I'm certain that Papaw was finding a way to be himself in heaven (he probably convinced God to let him have his way - he was a very persuasive man), and Mamaw couldn't wait to get there to line him out...they were a perfect match!

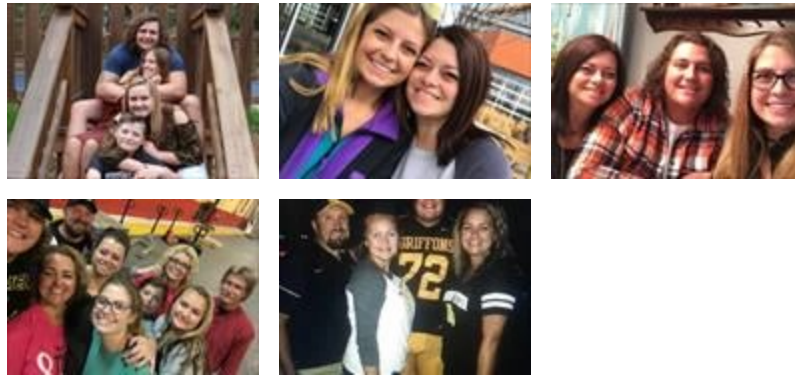

Regardless of what was going on in life, I always knew that there would be love, peace, and comfort in their home. There would also be lots of card games (She was cheating - even if she denied it, while Papaw TOTALLY owned it), tall tales, back scratches, concerts, and the knowledge that nothing would ever change the unconditional love they had for us. Smiling, laughing, and loving was always a part of spending time with them, and there were always tears when we left.

I'm heartbroken that I won't feel her touch, smell her perfume, fix her hair for her, borrow her clothes (who's grandparent is cool enough that you can actually share clothes), go antiquing, or just talk about whatever she wanted to at the time for the rest of my days on Earth.

If you knew her well, you knew she was in charge! On Sunday, her last Mother's Day, she was out in the yard on her scooter (I was afraid she was going to pop a wheelie because she was always going full speed on a mission), bossing us all around - giving explicit instructions as to where the flowers should be planted!

While the selfish part of me wishes she was still here, I am grateful that she is at peace, went there quickly and peacefully, and is reunited with the love of her life. She will be truly missed, but I look forward to the day when we meet again in the everlasting place God has prepared for us. I'm sure Mamaw and Papaw are watching over us every day, will never miss a ball game, and maybe they'll set up a way to toss a good card our way the next time we are playing hand and foot!

It would be impossible to ask for better grandparents than these two...God was smiling on us the day he made them ours!
