Mr. Jerry was born February 3, 1945, in Lafayette County, MS. He grew up as an extremely diligent and hard worker. He found his calling working as a supplies coordinator for the University of Mississippi. Jerry proudly dedicated 30 years of his life the Ole Miss, loving every minute of it. He had an amazing personality that always made others feel welcome, and he had a way of making friends everywhere he went.

Away from work, Jerry was an avid outdoorsman. He lived for the outdoors and spent every second he could enjoying it. It never mattered what he was doing as long as he was outside, but some of his favorite hobbies were hunting, fishing, gardening, and working in his yard with his loving wife, Lanitia. Jerry was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. He always put his family first, no matter the circumstances. His wife and grandchildren truly had his wrapped around their finger. He will truly be missed by all who knew him.

Mr. Jerry is survived by his wife, Lanitia Bishop of Saltillo, MS; his son, Gerald Bishop of Abbeville, MS; his step-daughter, Shannon (Jeffrey) Blackwell of Tuscumbia, AL; two grandchildren, Kayla Seamster of Baton Rouge, LA, and Charles Vaughn Seamster of Dallas, TX; and a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Mr. Jerry was preceded in death by his parents, Leon Bishop and Pauline Bishop; one sister, Shirley Coleman; and two brothers, Bobby Bishop and Billow Bishop.
