Ginger was born July 9, 1969 in Memphis, Tennessee, and currently was a resident of Byhalia, Mississippi. She worked in the Body Shop Industry for 20 plus years in the Memphis area. She attended Meadow Brook Baptist Church. Ginger was very family oriented and enjoyed the days spent where they could all be together. She loved her children immensely, but cherished her three grandbabies with everything she had. She was a friend's friend, and had a big heart for all those around her. Ginger leaves her family with the legacy of maintaining a kind heart to carry them through the days they endure in her absence.

Ginger's family wants to leave her friends with a prayer that has held them through this difficult time. "Lord, you know how hard it is to live and love in this world sometimes, because you have been here also. Thank you for your compassion toward us and your promise to bring us through whatever we may face. Through you we may have strength, grace, and victory. I pray you empower those left behind to keep fighting today.”

Ginger leaves behind her beloved husband of 34 years, Ronald E. Brown; children, Andrew Brown (Nicole) and Samantha Brown (Tylor); grandchildren, Drake Boxley, Bentley Holland, and Hendrix Brown; mother, Judy Jones; and her sister, Kimberly Elkins (Kirtis).

She is preceded in death by her father, Billy Jones.

In lieu of traditional flowers, memorials can be made to the ASPCA (www.aspc.org) or Tunica Humane Society at the address, 4500 Fox Island Rd, Tunica, MS 38676.

There will be a reception concluding all services at Mrs. Judy Jones' house for friends and extended family to gather in fellowship to honor her memory. (5606 Southbend Lane, Olive Branch, MS 38654)

“ Wow Ginger this is so surreal. You came to our family reunion in 1988 and the next year you were family. You always had a smile to go with your spunky, direct and opinionated approach. You were always willing to step up at the reunions cooking, cleaning or just doing what needed to be done. You’ve left an imprint on all of our hearts. Even though you’ve gained your wings I know that you are watching over Ronnie, Andrew, Sam and the grandkids. Just know that you are loved and missed ❤️💔
