

Harry K. Jennings Sr.

September 17, 2010

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

MSgt (USMC Ret) Harry K. Jennings Sr. died September 17, 2010 at the Veterans Memorial Home in Oxford, MS. He is preceded in death by his wife Nell Jennings, mother and father Isaac and Margaret Jennings, brothers Gordon and Amos Jennings.

He is survived by his sister Dorothy, brothers Holly and Bruce Jennings of Lincoln, NE; children Sandy Coan (Rob) and Peggy Hartsfield of Greenville, NC and son Harry K. Jennings Jr. (Frances) of Jacksonville, FL; seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. MSgt Jennings was a Purple Heart recipient of the Korean War and served in the U.S. Marine Corps for 28 years. Following his retirement from the USMC he taught at the Navy JROTC unit at Bartlett High School in Bartlett, TN. Harry was affectionately known as the "Cookie Man" to many business owners, schools and retirement homes throughout the Oxford community.

The family wishes to convey heartfelt thanks to the staff of the Veterans Home and to North Mississippi Hospice for the kind and compassionate care shown to MSgt Jennings and to the family. Thanks also to the loving and caring staff at Azalea Gardens Assisted Living Center where MSgt Jennings resided prior to moving to the Veterans Home.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Veterans Home, 120 Veterans Drive, Oxford, Mississippi 38655 or to North Mississippi Hospice, 104 Skyline Drive, Oxford, Mississippi 38655.

Graveside services will be held at Forest Hill Cemetery East, 2440 Whitten Rd., in Memphis, TN Wednesday September 22, 2010 at 11:00a.m. MSgt Jennings will be buried with full military honors. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford, MS is in charge of arrangements.

Online condolences may be left at www.colemanfuneralhome.com