

Hugh "June" Joyner Jr.

April 6, 1929 - April 10, 2022

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Hugh "June" Joyner, Jr. passed away April 10, 2022 in Southaven, MS. A visitation will be held Friday, April 15, 2022 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven (626 Star Landing Road East, Southaven, MS 38672). A funeral service will immediately follow at 12 p.m., also at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. Interment will be at Desoto Memorial Gardens (630 Star Landing Rd East, Southaven, MS 38672). Pastor Paul Hamlin will be officiating. Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements.

Hugh was born April 6, 1929 in Collierville, TN. He was a proud member of the United States Marine Corp and served in the Korean War. His service earned him the Purple Heart, Korean Service Medal, and the Presidential Unit Citation. He married his wife, Brenda, on March 1, 1952, and spent 70 beautiful years together. Hugh loved to watch baseball, and was the Atlanta Brave's biggest fan. He was also a skilled carpenter, or as his family described, a jack of all trades.

Hugh Joyner, Jr. is survived by his wife, Brenda Joyner of Nesbit, MS; his sons, Randy (Donna) Joyner of Southaven and Steve (Tina) Joyner of Hernando, MS; his daughter, Myra (Tom) Reiman of Nesbit; his

“ Mr. J (and Mrs. J) always made me feel welcomed and were so thoughtful at family events. His warm heart, gregarious sense of humor and constant smile shined a light on anyone lucky enough to be in his presence. The world will never be the same again. My fervent prayers and deepest condolences for all who were blood-related and feel this loss so sharply. Sending all my love...

“ I'll love you forever and ever Paw Paw. My life will never be the same without you. You molded me into the woman I am today, and I will forever be thankful that God blessed me with you as my Paw Paw. You were the BEST human being I've ever known. A piece of my heart will forever be missing. Rest Easy, and Semper Fi my Marine ❤️
