“ I'm so sorry to hear of your loss and send my apologies for being unable to be there in person. May the comfort and encouragement offered by others console you at this most difficult time in your lives. Even more, may the words of Psalms 147:3 which states, "He heals the broken hearted and binds up their wounds", assure you of God's love and tender care for you at this time. ”

“ I have known Mr. Jack all of my life. From the time I can remember, Mr. Jack was always very kind to me, and when you are young that is something you don't forget. As I got older, I have done business with Mr. Jack all of my adult life and he possessed the character traits of a true gentleman and very respected businessman. I will miss Mr. Jack as I know his family will. With the most heartfelt sympathy, Sherwin Haynie and family ”
