Mrs. Jackie Arnold was born December 22, 1943, in Memphis, TN. She is remembered for her selfless and loving spirit. Jackie enjoyed a successful career with H and R Block for over 35 years. However, her greatest pride in life was her family who she put above all else. She was married to the love of her life, Wiley, for 59 and a half years. Together, they raised two daughters, who she cherished. When she was not spending time with family, Jackie enjoyed watching hummingbirds, arts and crafts, knitting, crocheting, cooking, dancing, music, and watching her favorite movie, West Side Story. She also loved to cook for the Holidays. Jackie is remembered for being easy going, loving, extremely selfless, always helping others, and making others laugh. She brought joy to all who knew her and will be deeply missed.

Mrs. Jackie S. Arnold is survived by her husband, Wiley M. Arnold of Nesbit, MS; her daughters, Katrina Marie King (Jay) of Georgetown, TX and Tanya Sue McCreary (Norman) of Nesbit; her granddaughters, Rachel King of Austin, TX, Amanda Rowe (Dylan) of Georgetown, TX, Heather King of Georgetown, TX, Andrea King of Georgetown, TX, and Shelby McCreary of Southaven, MS; her great-grandsons, Colton Rowe and Brantley Rowe, both of Georgetown, TX; her sister Rebecca Cox of Horn Lake, MS; her brothers, Charles Russell (Pat) of Memphis, TN and Dwight V. To Morris and all of Jackie's family- I remember that Jackie always had a laugh and a smile on her face. She made everyone feel important and loved. Yes, she was certainly devoted to her sweet family , truly she was a Proverbs 31 lady."She comforts, encourages her husband and does him only good as long as there is life within her" Proverbs 31: 12.
