“ My fondest memories of Jada are when she was such a sprite of a young preschooler. She loved playing at her grandparents in their large backyard. I can still see her now running around with her, long blond hair flying about her and swimming and playing in their above ground pool with her cousins. However they were so close in age they bickered and teased more like siblings than cousins. She was such a pretty little blue-eyed girl and much loved by her grandmother, grandfather and Ohio family. She was full of energy and smiles. It seems as a woman she grew up to leave a wonderful legacy; two beautiful children, grandchildren, a college career and a profession. It is with a heavy heart we express our deepest sorrow and condolences for your loss. A young mother taken too soon from her children is always a tragedy. Sincerely, Aunt Cecile, Uncle Lewis and Grandma Lee.
