Jim was born to the late Sam Daniel and Lou V Graham in Oxford, MS. Jim enlisted in the United States Navy in 1958. After being honorably discharged, he went to work for the Railroad.

Jim was a man who loved his wife, family, and the Lord Jesus Christ. Seeing his family, especially his grandchildren, made his day. He enjoyed gardening and his flowers. Jim would often sit on his front porch admiring God's beautiful flowers. Jim also read his Bible every day, studying and living in God's word. After reading his Bible, he would often do his crossword puzzles.

Jim also loved to hunt and fish, especially coon hunting. His family shared a hunting story about Jim and his brother-in-law, Grady, and their lab. They went out one day and came upon a pond. The lab swam off into the pond and wouldn't come back. So off Grady went trying to get him. Grady made it to the dog and couldn't get back to the bank. Jim had to save both Grady and the dog. Come to find out, neither the dog nor Grady couldn't swim!

Jim is survived by his wife, Hilda Graham, of Water Valley, MS; six children, Mark Graham of Memphis, TN, Billy Graham, of Memphis, Jennifer Gwyn, Danny Smith, of Pope, MS, Darold Graham, Nashville, TN, and Joy (Pon) Phoummavong, of Palos, TN; six step-children, Charles Prescott (Nancy) Bryan, of Water Valley, Ronnie (Tina) Bryan, of Oxford, Bubba Bryan, of Oxford, Terry (Myra) Bryan, of Abbeville, MS, Kathy Short, of Water Valley, and Lisa (Mark) Berryhill, of Oxford; three sisters, Brenda G. (Tommy) Watson, of Abbeville, MS, Joyce G. (Grady) Croft, of Oxford, MS, and William (Barbara) Graham, of Columbus, MS; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, Sam Daniel and Lou V Graham; two sons, James Christie Graham and Jimmy Smith; one brother, Daniel Wayne Graham; and one sister, Mary G. Dooley.

The family would like to thank Kathy Short and Adam Bryan for taking care of Mr. Jim and all the love they extended to him and his family.
