

James F. Maples

January 4, 2012

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

James Floyd "Jimmy" Maples, 73, died Wednesday, January 04, 2012, at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Oxford, MS.

Born in Lafayette County, Mr. Maples had lived the majority of his life in the Oxford area. He had worked primarily as a grocery manager during his years of employment. As a very active member of the Taylor Baptist Church, Mr. Maples served on the deacon board there for many years. An avid hunter and outdoorsman, particularly deer hunting, he was also known as a good cook. However, he would be best known as husband, daddy, brother and friend.

Visitation will be held Friday, January 6, 2012, 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home with funeral services following at 1:00 p.m. in the Coleman Funeral Home Chapel. Bro. Kerby Ladner and Bro. Eric Hankins will officiate. Interment will be in the Garden of Memories located at Coleman Funeral Home.

Survivors include his wife, Virginia P. Maples of Oxford, MS; a daughter, Cindy Maples of Hernando, MS; a son, Chris Maples of Oxford, MS; a sister, Shirley Tatum of Taylor, MS.

His parents, Phillip and Irene Maples, and a brother, Donald Maples, preceded Mr. Maples in death.

Memorials may be made to the Taylor Baptist Church, P.O. Box 42, Taylor, MS 38673.
