“ James Grady was a source of support and strength for me when I came to the Lenzi home in 1977. just lost my parents and I found comfort and a sense of security from him. We hung out pretty much everyday and I guess I can brag on winning the games of pool we played but in my memory now James Grady not only helped me learn to laugh again but he really let me win those pool games . A wonderful man a great friend with the spirit of Christlike compassion for others. All these years later even before hearing of his leaving this world I thought of him. Fly high my friend. And hold the table for when I see you again
